

INVESTING IN YOUR FUTURE:

Practical Ways to GO After Your New Brannen Flute

A flute from Brannen Brothers is an investment in your future and grows in value throughout your entire flute career! The cost of our instruments reflects not only the cost of precious metal, but the flutemaker's experienced craftsmanship in making flutes by hand; quite simply, this is the definition of excellence in quality.

Although you may understand the need for this excellence when considering the purchase of your new Brannen flute, often considered the next step in a flute career, it can be difficult to accumulate the funds necessary to make such a purchase.
